

Here are the methodologies that my previous mentors used in mentoring me

Mentors	Nature	Methodology
Walter and Rita Todd	Spiritual Mentorship	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Open house for a few days a year to see their spiritual lives in action. 2. Mentoring based on needs (phone calls, emails, etc). 3. Regularly send spiritual materials of books and articles he read to challenge me for great reflection and depth in understanding Christian faith. 4. Embracing in a constant intercession for me and Linda.
Russ Rosser	Direct Mentorship	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Monthly Wednesday morning meeting with peer pastors for prayers and updates. 2. Shares his spiritual journey through books he read. 3. Follow up materials and reflections on certain ministry issues I face 4. One to one interaction to “mold” me on areas I need to grow. 5. Allows me to enter in a peer mentoring relationship with seminarians
Peter Nanfelt	Mentorship by correspondence	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Write 6x a year to probe me on areas of world mission and critical issues on ministry. 2. Reflective comments to troubleshoot district ministry issues. 3. Impart a deeper understanding of kingdom

		initiatives in many parts of the world. 4. Regularly pray for me and my wife
Randy Corbin	Supervised mentorship	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Conference ministries (2x a year) where feedbacks are received from peers regarding my spirituality and my ministry 2. Request a yearly proposal on my ministry enhancement to sharpen my skills and my knowledge via the Assistant DS. 3. Direct conversations and advices on my ministry plan as requested 4. Annual appointments to receive ministry report 5. Spiritual accountability
Gene Wood	Consultation based mentorship	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Professional advice offered from a denominational perspective 2. Open arm policy to interact with me on specific ministry challenges 3. Referrals for deeper consultation
Taylor Field (College days)	Friendship mentorship	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. One-to-one Greek NT Bible Study 2. Prayer and Support on life issues

These are the methods I used to provide mentorship to GCAC internship programs and lay leaders in the past few years.

Interns	Nature	Methods	Update
Chialin Yu	Staff Mentoring	Regular prayer, interaction and professional advice	Marketplace ministries
Jeremy Chou	Supervised co-mentoring	Direct instructional mentorship through	Medical field

		weekly staff meetings, refinement of ministry involvements and engagement with church ministries
Mike Wu	Supervised mentorship	Spiritual and direct instructional mentorship through 1-1 dialogue and prayer, counseling and encouragement	Graduated from Biola and currently serving in a Chinese church in Orange County, CA
Margaret Hsu	Supervised co-mentorship	Direct her growth path by encouragement and peer mentoring with the English pastor, provide an open policy for her to address life and ministry issues, assist her to explore her gift base	Lay ministry involvement with Peninsula Bible Church (Founder: Ray Stedman)
Wayne Jau	Lay leader/peer mentorship	Monthly luncheon meeting to mold and shape ministry direction and foundation, peer encouragement and ministry	Intern Pastor, Wycloffe Bible Church, NJ (starting April, 2011)
Sophia and K Huang	Lay person couple mentorship	Monthly book study on issues that helps her to grow strong in the area of faith and ministry, offer encouragement and prayer to step out in faith for greater ministry opportunities, open arm policy for prayer support	Library ministry, GCAC
Edward Hung	Lay leader mentorship	Provide insights and encouragement to develop evangelism and music ministry, send regular inspirational articles to engage in a dynamic formation of a worship team, group devotion with musicians	Leader, praise and worship ministry, GCAC
James Law	Lay leader mentorship	Monthly meeting to discuss ministry issues, encouragement and directing his giftedness toward evangelism,	Ministry leader, GCAC sharing articles that inspire growth and participation.

--	--	---	--

I treasure couple mentorship to help the men to lead the women on reproducing disciples of Jesus Christ on a regular basis.